 DRUG OR ALCOHOL USE - Questionnaire items 262 through 274 ask respondents about a number of substances they may have used in the past year. INFORMED YOUTH CONSENT FORM - National Youth Study

DESCRIPTION OF THE RESEARCH

The Behavioral Research Institute (BRI) of Boulder, Colorado is continuing its national study of American young people. This research involves collecting information from a representative sample of 1725 typical young people, asking them about their attitudes, beliefs and preceptions, and their involvement in both conventional and deviant types of activities. The research is an investigation of the causes and consequences of involvement in particular types of behavior. The information obtained will improve our understanding of both conventional and deviant types of behavior and could result in more effective policies and services for young people.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS AND GUARANTEES

The research involves a personal interview. As in previous years, the interview will last approximately an hour and a half and you will be paid $20. You are free to choose whether or not to complete this interview. Some of the questions in the interview may be considered personal or sensitive and might cause some personal discomfort. In the event you are free to skip any question that is objectionable. To ease any discomfort or anxiety, we guarantee that all of your answers will be confidential and that no one will see your answers except the interviewer who interviews you and the research staff at BRI. Your name will not appear anywhere on any completed interview form and no one except the research staff will ever be able to match your name with your answers.

As in prior years, the interview will again include questions about your involvement in certain illegal activities. There is some risk that your answers to these questions could involve you in some legal action if they were not protected and kept confidential by BRI. We guarantee you BRI WILL keep your answers confidential; that BRI has a U.S. Government guarantee of immunity from court subpoena, i.e., an assurance that BRI will not be required to give any information from any interview in this study to any local state or federal court; and that none of your answers to any question in this interview will be given to any person or agency without your personal written consent.

You are welcome to look at copies of the questions to be asked of you (the Interview Schedule) and written statements from the Behavioral Research Institute and U.S. Government which explain what taking part in the study involves. One of these written statements is the Special Assurance for the Protection of Human Subjects Agreement with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. The assurance agreement spells out in more detail the guarantees and procedures for keeping your answers confidential and the importance of the study. The other written statement, the Certificate of Confidentiality from the Department of Health and Human Services, allows BRI to promise you that no information you give BRI will be given to any other person or agency without your written consent.

There are no direct health benefits to you from participation in this research, although many respondents in past years have indicated they enjoyed being involved in the study and found the questions interesting. BRI will continue to send newsletters to all participants to inform you of study findings and conclusions. The potential benefits from this study will be to future young people. A better understanding of the causes and consequences of particular behavior patterns should result in more effective social policies regulating these behaviors and better services to young people who become involved in antisocial or personally dysfunctional behavior.

The interviewer will be happy to answer any questions you might have about taking part in this study. Each person in the study will be given a copy of this form (the Consent Form). If you have any questions later on, you may call or write:

CONSENT

I have read the above description of the National Survey of Youth and the participation requirements and guarantees. I understand the procedures to be followed and the guarantees of confidentiality for all information I provide. It is also my understanding that participation is voluntary and that I may choose not to participate in this study. It is also my understanding that if I participate I may refuse to answer any question that I find objectionable or too personal and that I may withdraw from the study at any time. I have been given an opportunity to examine the interview schedule, BRI's Special Assurance Agreement with the U.S. Department of Health, and Human Services, and BRI's Certificate of Confidentiality from the Department of Health and Human Services.

INFORMED CONSENT FORM - POLICE RECORD SEARCH

DESCRIPTION OF THE RESEARCH

The Behavioral Research Institute of Boulder, Colorado, is continuing its national study of American young people. This study will give us information on deviant and conforming behavior in American youth and young adults, as well as causes of this behavior. It is hoped that this information will help us understand how most persons avoid any serious or prolonged involvement in deviant or antisocial behavior and what leads some into these behaviors. As part of the study, we would like to check police records of any contacts with study respondents. We expect relatively few respondents to have any police contacts. In the event a respondent has had some contact with police, information on the date and reason for the contact and any police action will be collected.

PARTICIPATION REQUIREMENTS AND GUARANTEES

You are free to choose whether or not you want to be involved in this part of the study. If you agree to participate, you have the right to end your participation at any time during the course of the study. The check of police records may or may not result in any information about you. However, any information from police records is very personal and you may have some concern or worry about the confidentiality of such information. We promise you that all such information will be kept strictly confidential by BRI. YOUR NAME WILL NOT APPEAR WITH ANY OF THE INFORMATION from the records search. Codes which are known only to BRI staff will be used in place of names. Name-code lists will be kept apart from the police contact information in an Institute safe and will be destroyed once the study is over. At that point, all persons who took part in the study will become unknown even to the Institute staff.

Further, your confidentiality is protected by a Special Assurance for the Protection of Human Subjects Agreement and a Certificate of Confidentiality from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. These documents guarantee you that no information with individual identifiers, that is, information which can be attributed to you will be given to other persons or agencies without your written consent. You are welcome to examine both of these documents if you wish. Finally, none of this information will be reported on an individual basis by BRI. All reports will present data for groups only.

The interviewer from BRI will be happy to answer any questions you might have about taking part in the police records check. Each participant in the study will be given a copy of this form (the Consent Form), and any other questions you have later may be sent to:

Delbert S. Elliott, Director
Behavioral Research Institute
2305 Canyon Boulevard
Boulder, Colorado 80302

CONSENT

I have read the above description of the Police records check for the National Survey of Youth and the participation requirements and guarantees. I understand the procedures to be followed and the promises of confidentiality for all information gathered. I understand that I am giving permission to the Behavioral Research Institute to check police records for any contacts I might have had; and for the release of information to BRI about the date and reason for contacts and about action taken. It is also my understanding that participation is voluntary and I may withdraw my agreement to take part and stop my participation in this study at any time. I have had a chance to look at BRI's Special Assurance Agreement with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, and BRI's Certificate of Confidentiality from the Department of Health and Human Services.
